I have now the honor in consequence of the conversation which I had with you this forenoon to send you a statement of the different measures which Mr. Clark and I think necessary to enable the Privy Council to hear and decide the 550 cases of appeals from India which have been so long pending upon the Privy Council, but which owing to the zeal and promptitude with which

NATIONAL DEBT CONVERSION.

We are asked to state in answer to numerous inquiries with reference to the powers of trustees to deal with the new Stock which they have received in exchange for 3*l.* per Cent. Stock, that the 27th Section of the Conversion Act expressly empowers a trustee to sell such new Stock, and to invest the proceeds, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the terms of the trust deed, in any of the securities for the time being authorised for the investment of cash under the control of the High Court. The securities which are at present authorised for this purpose are prescribed in Rule 17 of Order XXII. of the Rules of the Supreme Court, 1883, which is as follows:—

"Cash under the control of or subject to the order of the Court may be invested in Bank Stock, East India Stock, Exchequer Bills, and 2*l.* 10s. per Cent. Annuities, and upon mortgage of freehold and copyhold estates respectively in England and Wales, as well as in Consolidated, Reduced, and New 3*l.* per Cent. Annuities."

This power of sale and re-investment is only given to trustees in respect of new Stock received by them on conversion.

Sir

I have the honor to submit for your favorable consideration my claim for the Egyptian War Medal. My application is made on the following grounds namely; That holding an appointment in Her Majesty's Royal Naval Reserve I was employed on Transport Duty in Egypt between the required dates July 11th & September 15th & having been subject during that time to Naval discipline I am I believe entitled to the medal under the existing regulations of the Royal Naval Reserve. My services were performed on board the Transport Ship "Nepaul" No 42 (Peninsular & Oriental Co.) which having disembarked her troops was lying at Ismailia from Sept. 1st to Sept. 22nd, during the greater part of which time I was employed daily on shore under the orders of Captain Rawson & his Officers. I beg to bring this before your notice as I believe that, excepting some of the Commanders of the Transports, who have already received the medal, there are very few if any of the Officers of the Royal Naval Reserve who were employed in the Transport Service under similar circumstances during the war. Hoping that you will kindly forward this application

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Lordship's note to me of the 5 Inst.

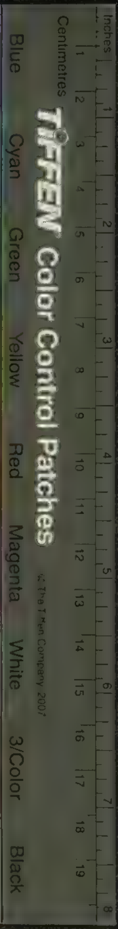

I beg leave, in answer to it, to enclose to your Lordship, a copy of your Lordship's letter to me of the 21. I have only now to add, that I hope, from the terms in which your Lordship was so obliging as to express yourself in your letter to me of the 21. August 1836, that your Lordship will, in consequence of the zeal with which I have served the public for thirty six years, as proved by the Records of both Houses of Parliament & by the report of the present Secretary of State for the Colonies & in consequence of the steadiness with which I have hitherto invariably used & still continue

(In the name

To his Excellency, the most honourable and noble Sir Alexander Johnston, Baronet, whose wellfare and splendour may be everlasting!

Whatever may be the high and friendly terms of our letter, and although the air may be filled with good odours;
we feel still that we shall not be able our affected feelings towards you.
Will you therefore look upon our letter as the vehicle of our desire that God may conduct your most glorious noble perfect and power-full Excellency, (candle in Charakter and great in quality) through an infinite series of nights and days, and that the Lord may preserve your sunlike person from every downfall and the splen-dour of your distinguished qualifications from every blame (Tread, [illegible]) and may the Almighty realize all your hopes.

The essential end of our writting is to ask after your health and wellfare, which form the chief object of our prayers to our Lord; and to inquire whether you remember your friend.

We had by the grace and bless of God the high pleasure to receive your letter of the 20 of September last, sent by Cpt. Cogan, and we felt ourselves happy in reading that you have bestowed upon us the favour to name us amongst the Members of royal asiatic Society with the distinctions of the King its Patron. I pray you to present my respects to all the members of the society and tell them: you have well done in conferring the favour upon us (the Sultan) of naming us a member. You do me a favour and a kindness in receiving our respects.

I do not feel any greater desire than to strengthen the mercantile connexions with the English, we pay than therefore peculiare attention, well knowing that our wellfare is in a great measure depending upon them, and that we are happy as long as we accomodate ourselves to them. If the good result should answer to our endeavour, it would surely be favourable.

Having understood that your Excellency stopt the slave-trade from Africa and Abyssinia according to worthy ((الاول)) principles, we think, and considering it with good affections, if England wished it, to comply according to our love and friendship and love for England.

But now I do not know what I could do to please the society. Cpt. Haynes has told me some thing which with the will of god I shall endeavour to accomplish. So for instance Cpt. Cogan made a mention about old Mss. from the libraries of Sanaa. If ~~what~~ I wish he might give me the title of such book, and I shall send copy copy to the Imaum of Sanaa, who is my friend for such books, and as soon as they arrive I shall send them to the government & (Wilaya) by the occasion of Capt. Cogan, for he is our agent in London. We will find pleasure in doing any thing to please the society. Wellfare!

Your friend the Sultan Sa'id, the ser-

There will, however, be no difficulty in your procuring a photograph of the portrait of Ralph Izard prefixed to the volume in question; and if Messrs Waterlow will make application in the usual way, facilities will be afforded them for the purpose.

My dear Lord.

In consequence of your having informed me that Lord Melbourne had requested you to refer me to him for an answer to the application which I had made to him through you & which you said you had supported in the strongest manner, for the Baronetcy which his late Majesty George the 4th had promised to confer on me as a reward for my public services in Ceylon, I wrote a letter to his Lordship upon the subject on the 8 of last May, but not having received any answer to it, I wrote another letter to his Lordship on the 16 of last June.

To write to Florence & ascertain the history of a Picture, (the marriage of St. Catherine by Carlo Dolci or by Agnese Dolci which is in the Collection of Count Pecori at Florence) was sold to H. R. Tilkauer about the year

Whether it was esteemed a painting done by him (C.D.) when a boy? or done by his daughter — what was considered its value who managed the transaction? For what it was sold to Tilkauer? Whether it was not always doubtful if the picture was by Carlo Dolci or by Agnese Dolci?—

Declarator to follow thereupon, but no part of the resolutive Clauses contained in the said Contract of Marriage was applicable to the Prohibition therein also contained against selling, disponing, or dilapidating the Estate:

Success on of the Dukedom of Argyll, down to the Father of the present Duke.

And whereas the said John Marquis of Lorne, afterwards Duke of Argyll and Greenwich, was infeft and seised in the said Earldom, Lordship, Barony, Lands and others, in virtue of the Procuratory of Resignation contained in the said Contract of Marriage; and subsequently the said John Duke of Argyll and Greenwich having died without leaving Male Issue, he was succeeded by his Brother Lord Archibald Campbell, afterwards Earl of Islay, who then became Duke of Argyll; and upon his Death without leaving Male Issue he was succeeded in his Honours and Estates by his Cousin German, General John Campbell of Mamore, who then became Duke of Argyll; and at his Death was succeeded in his Honours and Estates by John Marquis of Lorne, his eldest Son, then become Duke of Argyll, the Father of John Douglas Edward Henry now Duke of Argyll; all of whom successively made up Titles to and held and possessed the Dukedom, Lands, and Estate of Argyll, upon the Footing of the Tailzie contained in the before recited Contract of Marriage:

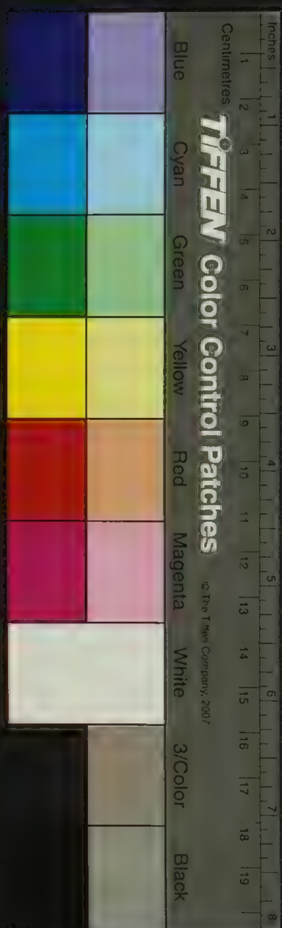

Deed of Entail by John Duke of Argyll, with Consent of his Son George William late Duke of Argyll, dated 17th and 23rd April, 1806.

And whereas the said last mentioned John Duke of Argyll, with the special Advice and Consent of his Son George William, then Marquis of Lorne, afterwards Duke of Argyll, brother of John Douglas Edward Henry now Duke of Argyll, made and executed a Procuratory of Resignation containing a new Tailzie of the same Dukedom and Estates, dated the Seventeenth and Twenty-third Days of April, One thousand eight hundred and six, in which new Tailzie an addition was made to the Resolutive Clause, so as to make it applicable to the Prohibition against selling, disponing, and dilapidating the Estate; and, upon the Death of his Father, the said George William Marquis of Lorne, then become Duke of Argyll, made up his Titles to the Dukedom and Estate of Argyll, in Terms of the said new Tailzie:

Decree of the Court of Session of the 11th June, 1816.

And whereas Counsel, on being consulted, having advised that it was ultra vires of the Makers of the last mentioned Entail to alter the Entail first before recited by adding a new Resolutive Clause, for the Purpose of preventing the Heirs of Entail from selling, disponing, or dilapidating the Estate, a Process and Action of Reduction was commenced and insisted in before the Lords of Council and Session in Scotland, at the instance of the said John Douglas Edward Henry Campbell,

Campbell, commonly then called Lord John Campbell, now Duke of Argyll, and his Brother the said George William Duke of Argyll; and after various Proceedings in this Action the said Lords of Council and Session, by their Decree of Reduction and Declarator dated the Eleventh Day of June, One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, reduced and set aside the said Procuratory of Resignation, dated the Seventeenth and Twenty-third Days of April, One thousand eight hundred and six, and the Titles made up under it, and in consequence of the said Decree the said George William late Duke of Argyll made up Titles under the Tailzie contained in the aforesaid Contract of Marriage, dated the Thirtieth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and one:

Second Disposition and Deed of Trust, dated 17th June, 1816.

And whereas the said George William late Duke of Argyll did thereupon make and execute a Disposition and Deed of Trust, dated the Seventeenth Day of June, One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, by which he sold, alienated, and disponed, to and in favour of Charles Selkrig, Accountant in Edinburgh, Robert Wilson, Accountant there, Claud Russell, Accountant there, and Patrick Cockburn, Accountant there, whom failing, such other Person or Persons as should be named and appointed by the Lord Advocate of Scotland and the Solicitor General for Scotland, and in case of their differing in opinion by the Dean of the Faculty of Advocates for the Time being, with Power to each of the said Four Trustees, in the Order of their Enumeration, in the first place to manage and execute the Trust, and failing them, that the Trustees who should be appointed in manner before mentioned should have the same Power in their Order as if they had been specially named and appointed in the Deed, all and whole the Dukedom, Lands, and Estate of Argyll, in Trust, with Consent of the said Duke, to sell and dispose of as much of the said Lands and Estate, either by public Sale or private Bargain, as should be sufficient for the Purpose of paying the whole of his Debts, and for redeeming the whole of the Annuities which had been granted by him according to a Schedule thereto subjoined and signed as relative to the same: And the said Charles Selkrig, as Trustee under the said last-recited Disposition and Deed of Trust, having accepted the same, and having under the Powers conferred by it sold a certain Part of the said Dukedom and Estate of Argyll to Major-General Lachlan Macquarrie, and the Purchaser thereof having declined to implement the Bargain and to pay the Price until it should be determined by competent Authority that the said Duke and the Trustee as empowered by him could make a good and valid Sale, for that

that Purpose the said Purchaser presented a Bill of Suspension as of a threatened Charge for Payment of the Price, to the Court of Session, setting forth the Circumstances, and praying for Letters of Suspension in the Premises, which Bill of Suspension, with Answers by the said Duke and the Trustee, having come to be advised by the Second Division of the Court, the Judges of the said Division, by an Interlocutor, dated the Sixteenth Day of November, One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, unanimously refused the Bill, thereby confirming the Sale of the Lands made by the said Duke and his Trustee, and establishing the Right of the said Duke to sell such Parts of the said Dukedom and Estate as he should think fit:

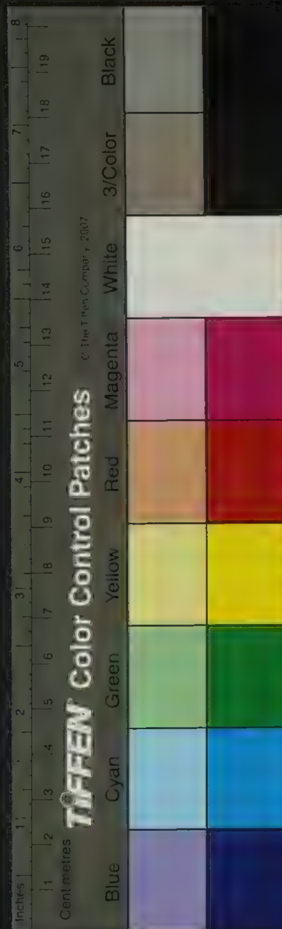

Confirmed by the Court of Session, 16th November, 1816.

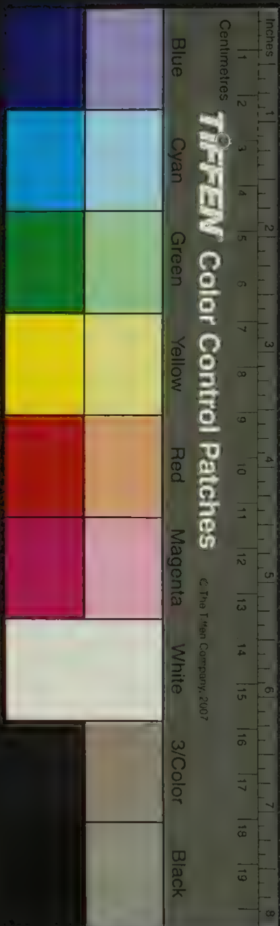

And whereas the said Duke subsequently upon the Thirtieth Day of November, One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, executed a Commission empowering the said Charles Selkrig, without the Consent of the said Duke, to sell such Parts as he might judge proper of the Lands and Estates contained in the said Trust Disposition, excepting his Lands situated in the Parishes of Inverary and Kilmorick, and his Lands and Barony of Roseneath; and the said Charles Selkrig acting under the said Trust Deed, and under the said Commission, sold various Parts of the Lands comprised in the said Dukedom and Estate to the Extent of the Principal of the then Debts of the said George William Duke of Argyll:

Commission, dated 30th November, 1818.

And whereas an Act was passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for empowering "George William Duke of Argyll and his Trustee to borrow a Sum of "Money, and to make it a Charge on the Estate of Argyll upon certain "Conditions," in the Preamble to which Act the said two Entails of the Thirtieth of December One thousand seven hundred and one, and Seventeenth and Twenty-third Days of April One thousand eight hundred and six, and other Matters herein-before mentioned, were, inter alia, recited; and it was also recited, that in respect that the Deed of Tailzie comprehended in the said Contract of Marriage, dated the Thirtieth Day of December One thousand seven hundred and one, contained a Clause that it should be nowise lawful to nor in the Power of the Heirs of Tailzie to contract Debt whereby the Estates, or any Part thereof, might be encumbered or evicted by Mortgage or otherwise, which Clause of Prohibition was guarded and fenced by irritant and resolutive Clauses, insomuch that no Debt could be contracted, nor could the same be made even a temporary Charge against the Estate, however beneficial it might be to the Heir in Possession as well as to the Estate itself, without the Interposition and Authority of Parliament; by that Act, the said George William Duke of Argyll, and the said Charles Selkrig his Trustee, were, inter alia, empowered to borrow a Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds Sterling, and to charge the same, and Interest and Penalty thereof, upon the said Dukedom and Estate of Argyll, or any Part thereof, to be applied for the Purposes therein mentioned.

7 W. 4. c. 16. And whereas another Act was passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act "to alter and extend the Powers of an Act passed in the Eleventh "Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, "intituled 'An Act for empowering George William Duke of Argyll and "his Trustee to borrow a Sum of Money, and to make it a Charge "on the Estate of Argyll, upon certain Conditions;'" in the Preamble to which Act it was, inter alia, recited, that the said George William Duke of Argyll, and the said Charles Selkrig as Trustee foresaid, in virtue of the Powers by the said recited Act granted, had borrowed the Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds from the Royal Bank of Scotland; and that from the Causes in the said recited Act stated, and a falling off in the Rents and Produce of the said Dukedom and Estates, the said George William Duke of Argyll had contracted further Debts; by the said last-mentioned Act, the said George William Duke of Argyll, and the said Charles Selkrig were authorized and empowered to borrow a further Sum of Money to an Amount not exceeding Thirty thousand Pounds, and to charge the same with the Interest and Penalty thereof upon the said Dukedom and Estate of Argyll.

5 & 6 Vict. c. 16. And whereas another Act was passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to alter and amend "two Acts of the Eleventh of King George the Fourth, and Seventh "of his late Majesty, in regard to the Estates of Argyll, and to enable "John Douglas Edward Henry, the present Duke of Argyll, to borrow a "further Sum of Money, and to make the same a Charge upon the said "Estates, and for other Purposes;" in the Preamble to which Act, it is, inter alia, recited, that the said George William Duke of Argyll, and the said Charles Selkrig as Trustee foresaid, had borrowed the said Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds, and the same had been charged upon the said Dukedom and Estate of Argyll; and it is also recited, that the said Charles Selkrig had died, and had been succeeded in his Office of Trustee by Donald Lindsay Accountant in Edinburgh; and it is further recited, that the said George William Duke of Argyll having died, he was succeeded by the said John Douglas Edward Henry the present Duke, and that the said Donald Lindsay, the new Trustee had applied the Sum of Fifty-four thousand Pounds towards Extinction of the Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds borrowed under the Authority of the said first recited Act of Parliament; and further reciting, that from the Causes therein mentioned the said John Douglas Edward Henry, the present Duke of Argyll, had contracted various Debts, and that under the said first-recited Entail, the Heirs of Entail thereby called to the Succession were effectually prohibited from contracting Debt on the said Dukedom and Estate, or burdening the same therewith, and that the said John Douglas Edward Henry Duke of Argyll had it not in his power to pay off the several Sums contracted and due by him otherwise than by a Sale of so much of the said Dukedom and Estate as might be necessary for that Purpose, which from the Defect in the Deed of Entail thereof before mentioned, it was in his power to make; by the said last-recited Act it is, inter alia, enacted, that the former Trusts should be wound up and the Trustee discharged, in the room of whom Robert Glasgow, Esquire, of Mountgreenan, in the County of Ayr, Hew Francis Cadell, residing at Cockenzie, in the County of East Lothian, and Lorne Campbell, residing at Portkiln, in the County of Dumbarton, are thereby appointed as new Trustees for the Purposes therein mentioned, and it is further enacted, that the said John Douglas Edward Henry, the present Duke, should be authorized and empowered, in addition to the Balance remaining due upon the said Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, and the said Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds, already borrowed as aforesaid under the Authority of the said recited Acts, from Time to Time, as he should see expedient, to borrow a further Sum or Sums of Money to an Amount not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Eighty-five thousand Pounds, and to charge the same, with the Interest and Penalty corresponding thereto, upon the said Dukedom and Estate of Argyll, upon the Conditions therein mentioned; and also to borrow a further Sum of Money, to the Extent of Fifteen thousand Pounds, in addition to the Sums before specified, if the same should be authorized by the Court of Session in Scotland in either Division thereof; and the said John Douglas Edward Henry Duke of Argyll became bound to pay the Interest on the Debts then remaining due and owing, and to be borrowed as aforesaid, and to pay to the Trustees appointed under the said last-recited Act the Sum of Five thousand Pounds yearly, as a Sinking Fund to be by the said Trustees applied towards the gradual Extinction of the Balance of the said Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, and of the said Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds, and of the Sums to be borrowed or made a Charge on the Dukedom and Estate under the said last-mentioned Act.

 And

Powers exercised under the last-recited Act.

And whereas the said John Douglas Edward Henry Duke of Argyll has borrowed the whole Money allowed to be borrowed under the Authority of the said last-mentioned Act; and he has continued, down to the present Date, to pay the Interest on the whole Sums now due and owing as a Charge on the said Dukedom and Estate, together with the Sinking Fund made payable under the said last-recited Act, down to the Term of Whit Sunday last.

And whereas, by Contract of Marriage bearing Date the Twenty-ninth and Thirty-first Days of July last, in the year One thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and recorded in the Books of Council and Session on the Third Day of March in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, made between the Honourable George Douglas Glassell Campbell, therein described of Longniddry, commonly called Marquis of Lorne, only son of the said John Douglas Edward Henry Duke of Argyll, with consent of his said Father, on the one Part; and Lady Elizabeth Georgiana Sutherland Leveson Gower, eldest daughter of his Grace George Granville Duke and Earl of Sutherland, Knight of the most noble Order of the Garter, with the special Advice and Consent of her said Father, on the other Part; the said Marquis of Lorne and the said Lady Elizabeth Georgiana Sutherland Leveson Gower agreed to accept of each other as lawful Spouses, in contemplation of which Marriage the said Marquis of Lorne thereby bound and obliged himself and his Heirs, Executors, and Successors whomsoever, to content and pay to the said Lady Elizabeth Georgiana Sutherland Leveson Gower, during all the Days of her Life, in the event of her surviving him, a free Liferent Annuity of Five thousand Pounds, but to be restricted in the Events after mentioned to the Sums following; (videlicet,) to the Sum of Two thousand five hundred Pounds during the Life of the said John Douglas Edward Henry Duke of Argyll, to the Sum of Three thousand five hundred Pounds after the Death of the said Duke, in the event of the said Marquis predeceasing him, and to the Sum of Three thousand five hundred Pounds during the Life of her Grace Anne, present Duchess of Argyll, in the event of the said Marquis surviving the said Duke and becoming Duke of Argyll during the Life of Her Grace, payable the said Annuity, subject to Restriction as aforesaid, at two Terms in the Year, Whitsunday and Martinmas, by equal Portions, beginning the First Term's Payment thereof at the First Term of Whitsunday or Martinmas after the Decease of the said Marquis of Lorne, and that half-yearly and termly thereafter during the Lifetime of the said Lady Elizabeth Georgiana Sutherland Leveson Gower, now Marchioness of Lorne, with a Fifth Part more of each Term's

Payment

Payment of liquidate Penalty for each Term's Failure in case of not punctual Payment, and the due and legal Interest of each Term's Payment from the Term of Payment thereof during the not Payment of the same; and upon the Recital that the said Marquis of Lorne is Heir of Entail, and in possession of certain Parts and Portions of the Lands and Barony of Longniddry under a Deed of Entail thereof dated the Third Day of February, One thousand eight hundred, registered in the Register of Tailzies the Eleventh, and in the Books of Council and Session the Twenty-fifth Days of June One thousand eight hundred and six, made and granted by John Glassell Esquire, of Longniddry in favour of himself and the Heirs and Substitutes therein specified, and that the said Marquis of Lorne, in virtue of the Powers conferred upon him by an Act of Parliament passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, Cap. 87., intituled " An Act to authorize the " Proprietors of Entailed Estates in Scotland to grant Provisions to the " Wives or Husbands and Children of such Proprietors," in further security of the said Annuity of Five thousand Pounds, to be restricted to the respective Sums and in the respective Events before specified, bound and obliged himself, and the respective Heirs of Tailzie succeeding to him in the Parts and Portions of the Lands and Barony of Longniddry and others in the said Contract of Marriage particularly described, upon their own Charges and Expences to infeft and seise the said Lady Elizabeth Georgiana Sutherland Leveson Gower, his promised Spouse, in a free Liferent Annuity of Four hundred and fifty Pounds payable at two Terms in the Year, Whitsunday and Martinmas, by equal Portions, and that during all the Days of her Life after the Death of the said Marquis, beginning the first Payment thereof at the first of these Times that shall happen after that Event for the Half-year following that Term, and so forth half-yearly and termly thereafter during the Life of the said Lady Elizabeth Georgiana Sutherland Leveson Gower, with a fifth Part more of liquidate Penalty in case of Failure, and the legal Interest of the said Annuity from and after the respective Terms of Payment thereof during the Non-payment of the same, to be uplifted and taken the said Annuity furth of all and whole the Parts and Portions of the Lands and Barony of Longniddry in the said Contract of Marriage specially mentioned and described; declaring that the said Annuity of Four hundred and fifty Pounds was provided by the said Marquis of Lorne, and accepted by the said Lady Elizabeth Georgiana Sutherland Leveson Gower, under all the Restrictions, Conditions, and Limitations contained in the foresaid Act of the

Fifth

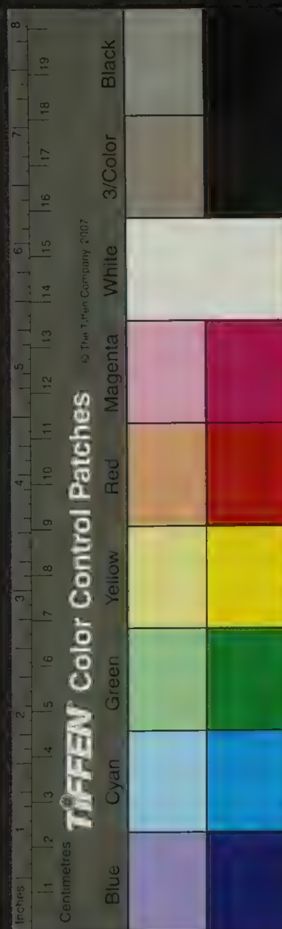

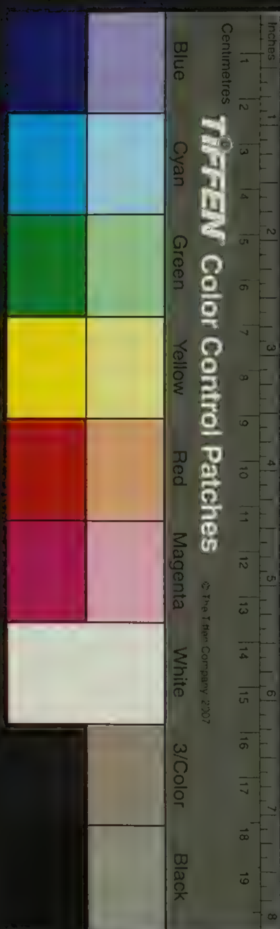

Fifth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, Cap. 87.; and in further security of the said Annuity of Five thousand Pounds, to be restricted to the respective Sums, and in the respective Events before specified, the said Marquis of Lorne by the said Contract of Marriage bound and obliged himself, after the Death of the said Duke, to make up and complete Titles in his Person to the said Dukedom, Lands, Baronies, and others before referred to, which are contained in the said Deed of Entail first herein-before recited, and thereupon well and effectually to charge the same under the Powers conferred by the said Deed and by the said last-mentioned Act of Parliament, or one or other of them, with such Amount of Annuity, Interest, and Penalty corresponding thereto as along with the said Sum of Four hundred and fifty Pounds charged upon the said Parts and Portions of the Lands and Barony of Longniddry, Interest and Penalty corresponding thereto, would make up the full Amount of the said Annuity of Five thousand Pounds therein-before undertaken to be paid by him, his Heirs and Executors to the said Lady Elizabeth Georgiana Sutherland Leveson Gower, to be restricted to the said respective Sums and in the respective Events therein-before specified, and that at the Sight of the Trustees therein-after named and appointed; and in further contemplation of the said Marriage, the said Marquis of Lorne by the said Contract of Marriage bound and obliged himself and his Heirs, Executors, and Successors whomsoever to content and pay to the Child or Children to be procreated of the said Marriage, other than the eldest Son or Heir succeeding to the said Dukedom, Lands, Baronies, and others therein-before referred to, or to the said Parts and Portions of the said Lands and Barony of Longniddry and others, or who might be entitled to succeed thereto upon the Death of the said Marquis of Lorne, and to the lawful Issue of their Children who should predecease him the Provisions following; (videlicet,) if One such Child, the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds; if Two such Children, Fifteen thousand Pounds; if Three such Children, Twenty thousand Pounds; and if Four or more such Children, Twenty-five thousand Pounds, all sterling Money; and that at the first Term of Whitsunday or Martinmas after his Death, with a fifth Part more thereof of liquidate Penalty and the due and legal Interest thereof from and after the said Term during the not Payment thereof; which Provisions therein-before made in favour of the said Child or Children should be divisible among them if more than One, and the lawful Issue of those who should predecease, in such Proportions as the said Marquis of Lorne should appoint by a Writing under his Hand at any Time of his Life;

and failing such Appointment by the said Marquis of Lorne, the said Sums should be divisible in such Proportions as the said Lady Elizabeth Georgiana Sutherland Leveson Gower, in the event of her surviving him, should appoint by a Writing under her Hand at any Time after the Death of him the said Marquis of Lorne; and failing such Appointment by either Party, the said Sums should be divided among the said Children equally, the lawful Issue of any Child or Children who had predeceased their said Father receiving the Share which such deceased Child would have been entitled to if he or she had survived; and further declaring that in case the said Marquis of Lorne should not make any Appointment as to the Division or Apportionment of the said Provisions, and the said Lady Elizabeth Georgiana Sutherland Leveson Gower should survive him, she should be bound on the Majority or Marriage of each Child, if required by him or her, to exercise the Power of Apportionment thereby given to her so far as such Child was concerned, if she should not have previously done so; and in case she should not make such Apportionment within Six Calendar Months after such Requisition, such Child should be entitled to a Share of the Sum remaining unappropriated at the Time on the Footing of an equal Division thereof among all the Children who had not previously had their Shares of the said Provisions fixed and apportioned to them; and while any Part of the said Provisions should remain unappropriated, the Interest accruing thereon should be held to belong in equal Shares to the whole Children interested in the Capital, that is, to those who should not have had their Shares of the said Provisions fixed and determined; therefore in further security of the Provisions thereinbefore conceived in favour of the said Child or Children other than the eldest Son or Heir succeeding or entitled to succeed as aforesaid, and in virtue of the Powers conferred by the Deed of Entail of the said Parts and Portions of the Lands and Barony of Longniddry, the said Marquis of Lorne by the said Contract of Marriage assigned, conveyed, and made over to the said younger Child or Children the following Sums out of the Rents of the said Parts and Portions of the said Lands and Barony of Longniddry; (videlicet,) in the event of there being only One such Child, the Sum of Two thousand nine hundred Pounds, being the Amount of Two Years' free Rent of the said Lands and others; and in the event of there being Two or more such Children, the Sum of Four thousand three hundred and fifty Pounds, being the Amount of Three Years' free Rent of the said Lands and others, which Provisions should be payable at the first Term of Whitsunday or Martinmas after the Death of the said Marquis of Lorne, with a fifth Part more of Penalty, and bear Interest from the said Term during the Non-payment, and be divisible among the said Children in the Manner before provided; declaring that the said Sums were provided to the said Child or Children under all the Declarations, Conditions, and Provisions of the said Deed of Entail, so far as applicable thereto; and further, for greater security to the said Child or Children, the said Marquis of Lorne in like Manner bound and obliged himself immediately upon the death of the said Duke of Argyll to make up and complete Titles in his Person to the said Dukedom, Lands, Baronies, and others therein before referred to, which are contained in the said Entail first herein recited, and thereupon well and effectually to charge the same under the Powers conferred by the said Deeds and by the said Act of Parliament, or one or other of them, with such capital Sum, Interest and Penalty, as along with the said Sum of Four thousand three hundred and fifty Pounds, Interest and Penalty, charged upon the said Parts and Portions of the said Lands and Barony of Longniddry, should make up the full Amount of Provisions therein before undertaken to be paid by him to the said Child or Children, and that at the Sight of the Trustees therein before named and their foresaids; and in order still more effectually to secure Payment of the said Annuity of Five thousand Pounds, to be restricted to the Sums and in the Events before specified therein before undertaken by the said Marquis of Lorne to be paid to the said Lady Elizabeth Georgiana Sutherland Leveson Gower, and of the said Provisions undertaken to be paid by him to the younger Child or Children of the said Marriage, the said Duke of Argyll by the said Contract of Marriage bound and obliged himself in the then next Session of Parliament to apply for and endeavour to obtain an Act of Parliament authorizing and empowering him to make the said Annuity and Provisions so far as not covered by and secured upon the said Parts and Portions of the said Lands and Barony of Longniddry, effectual Charges upon the said Dukedom and Lands and Baronies and others contained in the said Entail, first before recited, to take effect from and after the period of his Death; but declaring that the said Annuity and Provisions should not infringe on or at all affect the Annuity of Five thousand Pounds settled by the said Duke on Anne present Duchess of Argyll his Spouse, conform to bond of Provision or Annuity in her favour over the said Dukedom, Lands, Baronies, and others dated the Twenty-seventh Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, or the Provision of Thirty thousand Pounds to be restricted to Fifteen thousand Pounds in the Event and during the Period specified in the Bond of Provision therein-after mentioned, payable out of the said Dukedom, Lands, Baronies, and and others settled by the said Duke upon Lady Emma Augusta Campbell, his only Daughter, conform to Bond of Provision, bearing Date the said Twenty-seventh Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, and on such Act of Parliament being obtained to charge the same thereon accordingly, subject always to the Declaration foresaid in favour of the present Duchess of Argyll and Lady Emma Augusta Campbell: And it was by the said Contract of Marriage declared that on the said Annuity and Provisions being thus made effectual Charges upon the said Dukedom, and Lands, Baronies, and others, the obligation upon the said Marquis of Lorne to make up Titles to the said Dukedom, and Lands, Baronies, and others, and charge them with the said Annuity and Provisions, should become void; and the said Contract of Marriage contained several further Obligations and Conditions, as upon reference to the same will more fully and at large appear:

Marriage of the Marquis and Marchioness of Lorne, 31st July 1844.

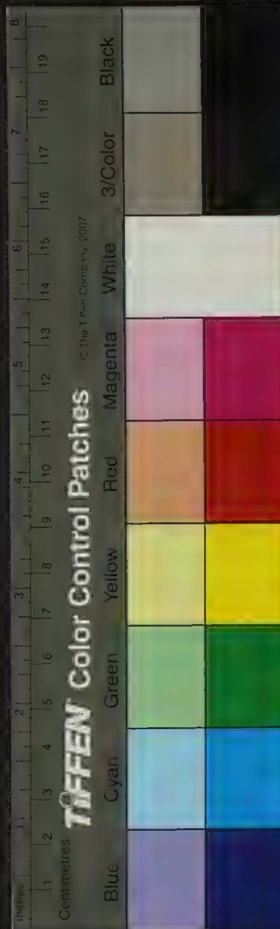

And whereas the Marriage between the said Marquis of Lorne and the said Lady Elizabeth Georgiana Sutherland Leveson Gower accordingly took effect, and was solemnized on the Thirty-first Day of July last:

The Duke not empowered to charge the Annuity and Provisions contained in the Contract of Marriage upon the Entailed Estate.

And whereas, though it has been recognized by various Judgments of the Court of Session in Scotland, and by the said Acts of the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, of the Seventh Years of the Reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, and of the Fifth and Sixth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, that the Duke of Argyll has Power to sell the said Dukedom and Estates of Argyll, yet he has no Power upon the Marriage of his Son the Marquis of Lorne, without the Aid and Authority of Parliament, to charge upon the said Dukedom and Estates the Provisions for the said Marchioness of Lorne by Way of Jointure, and the Provisions for the Child or Children of the said Marriage, other than the Heir thereof, which the said Marquis of Lorne by the said last-recited Contract of Marriage covenanted to charge upon the said Dukedom and Estates, if he should survive his said Father and succeed to the said Dukedom and Estates:

Expedient to grant such Power.

And whereas, though competent Provisions might be made for the said Marchioness and for the younger Children of the said Marriage if a Sale were made of the said Dukedom and Estates, or a competent Part thereof, the said Duke of Argyll and Marquis of Lorne his Son are unwilling that the Powers of Sale should be exercised for effecting the Purposes aforesaid, and it would be more beneficial to the future Heirs of Entail that Power should be given to the said Duke to charge the aforesaid Provisions upon the Dukedom and Estates in his own Lifetime; but as these Purposes cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament,

May it therefore please Your MAJESTY,

The Duke empowered to make the Annuity to the Marchioness, payable upon his Death, a Charge upon the Entailed Estate.

Upon the Petition of Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the said John Douglas Edward Henry Duke of Argyll, and the said George Douglas Glassell Campbell, Marquis of Lorne, his Son, That it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, that as soon as may be after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the said John Douglas Edward Henry Duke of Argyll, and he is hereby specially authorized and empowered to effectually charge the said Dukedom and Estate of Argyll, as the same are particularly set forth in the Schedule (D) to the said first recited Act annexed, or any Part or Parts thereof, with a free Liferent Annuity of Five thousand Pounds to the said Lady Elizabeth Georgiana Sutherland Leveson Gower, now Marchioness of Lorne, but to be restricted in the Events mentioned in the Contract of Marriage last herein-before recited to the Sums following; (videlicet,) to the Sum of Two thousand five hundred Pounds during the Life of the said Duke of Argyll, to the Sum of Three thousand five hundred Pounds after the Death of the said Duke in the event of the said Marquis of Lorne predeceasing him, and to the Sum of Three thousand five hundred Pounds during the Life of Her Grace Anne present Duchess of Argyll, in the event of the said Marquis surviving the said Duke and becoming Duke of Argyll during the Life of the said Anne Duchess of Argyll, in so far as the said Liferent Annuity, subject to Restriction as aforesaid, is not covered and secured upon the said Parts and Portions of the Lands and Barony of Longniddry in manner before mentioned, payable the said Annuity, subject to Restriction as aforesaid, at the Terms and in the Manner mentioned in the said last herein-before recited Contract of Marriage, and that by executing a Bond of Provision or Annuity, or other Deed or Deeds, containing all usual and necessary Clauses according to the Form

Form and Practice of the Law of Scotland, and expeding Infeftment thereon in favour of the said Lady Elizabeth Georgiana Sutherland Leveson Gower, now Marchioness of Lorne, which Bond or other Deed or Deeds shall be equally good and binding as if the same were granted over an Estate held in Fee Simple, notwithstanding of the Tailzie contained in the said Contract of Marriage first herein-before recited, dated the Thirtieth Day of December in the Year One thousand seven hundred and one.

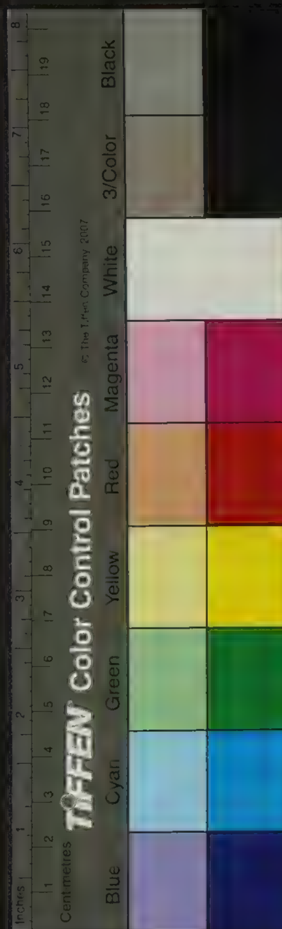

And to charge thereon the Provisions to the younger Children of the Marquis and Marchioness of Lorne.

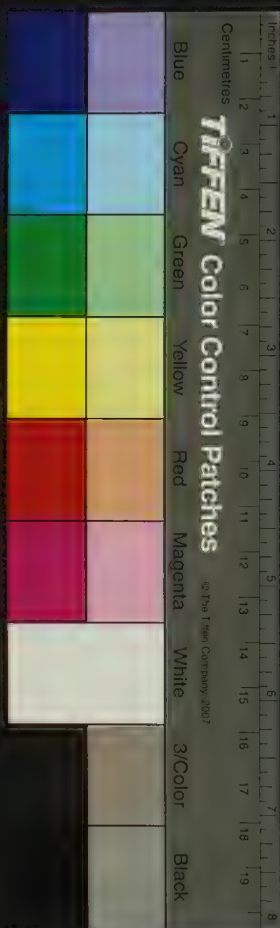

And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said John Douglas Edward Henry Duke of Argyll, and he is hereby further authorized and empowered effectually to charge the said Dukedom and Estate of Argyll, as the same are particularly set forth in the said Schedule (D) to the said first-recited Act annexed, or any Part or Parts thereof, with the following Provisions to the Child or Children to be procreated of the Marriage between the said George Douglas Glassell Campbell Marquis of Lorne and the said Lady Elizabeth Georgiana Sutherland Leveson Gower now Marchionness of Lorne, other than the eldest Son or Heir succeeding to the said Dukedom and Estates of Argyll; (videlicet,) If One such Child, the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds; if Two such Children, Fifteen thousand Pounds; if Three such Children, Twenty thousand Pounds; and if Four or more such Children, Twenty-five thousand Pounds, in so far as the said Provisions are not covered and secured upon the said Parts and Portions of the said Lands and Barony of Longniddry, in manner herein-before mentioned, payable the said Provisions at the Terms and in the Manner and subject to the Power of Apportionment mentioned in the said Contract of Marriage between the said George Douglas Glassell Campbell Marquis of Lorne and the said Lady Elizabeth Georgiana Sutherland Leveson Gower, now Marchioness of Lorne, herein-before recited, and that by executing a Bond of Provision or other Deed or Deeds containing all usual and necessary Clauses according to the Form and Practice of the Law of Scotland, and expeding Infeftment thereon in favour of such Child or Children, which Bond of Provision or other Deed or Deeds shall be equally good and binding as if the same were taken over an Estate held in Fee Simple, notwithstanding of the Tailzie contained in the Contract of Marriage first herein-before recited, dated the Thirtieth Day of December, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and one.

Heir of Entail not to incur Irritancy.

And be it enacted, That the said John Douglas Edward Henry Duke of Argyll, or any Heir of Entail who may come into possession of the said Dukedom and Estate of Argyll, shall not incur any Irritancy or Forfeiture by reason of or on account of the exercise of any of the Powers by this Act given.
